Assembly 1925

IF you wish to see the Queen's of to-day, circumspice; the Queen's of yesterday is here pictured. Perhaps the change is more in semblance than in reality, for the spirit which is Queen's is the spirit which was Queen's at the beginning, and will be Queen's to the end, we trust. The spirit may be expressed in the words, "Truth is its own light and its own support," or in the words of the college motto, "Stedfastness comes from knowledge blended with wisdom." Whatever sparks of pride in their Alma Mater that may have been at times detected in the graduate of Queen's are due to their satisfaction in seeing fulfilled the early visions of the Old Guard. (See Endowment Number, "Queen's of To-day.")

You need hardly be reminded that in Kingston your feet are on historic soil. The names of its adjacent islands recall many a page of exploration, trial and adventure, and its forts and towers are worthy of a passing glance.

As you look out over the harbour you see part of the twenty-mile-wide source of the St. Lawrence and the lake sentinels of the 1000 Islands. Downwards through these islands, upwards along the Bay of Quinte, and northwards through the Rideau Lakes are trips of unusual beauty. These and other points of interest are mentioned at the end of this booklet.

In the name of the University, the Kingston Presbytery and the people of Kingston, we welcome the Assembly to the Grant Memorial Hall, trusting that all its deliberations may be to the glory of God and to the enduring profit of that branch of the Church which it represents, and hoping that every Commissioner may carry away with him pleasant recollections of the old Limestone City and its seat of learning.

Irritable Throat Becomes Chronic!

Only a slight hacking now—but the tender linings of the throat and bronchial tubes are being permanently injured.

Why not strenthen your throat before too late? It can be done with "Catarrhozone."

Simply inhale the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone; it stimulates the formation of new tissue, relieves irritation and congestion, cuts out the phlegm—makes you well for all time.

Not a fake, but a scientific treatment that at once appeals to every intelligent person,—simple, pleasant and satisfying in its effect. Note the following:

An Aid to Public Speakers

REV. J. S. HUGHES, of Perth, Ont., says: "I have used Catarrhozone with most beneficial results. In my work as a public speaker I find it of great value. It helps my throat very much."

Cures Throat Irritation

REV. M. MCKAY, of Goderich, writes: "Catarrhozone is an excellent remedy for throat irritation arising from public speaking. I highly recommend it."

Catarrhozone the One Cure!
